APPEARANCE	MAX NOTE: 12	COMMENTS
BAD very cloudy, suspicious colour, sediment and/or very visible	0 - 2	Remarkable clarity. Beautiful, light colour. Resembles of white wine. Legs are forming on the glass-not too big but visible. No saturation. Nice light reflexes shining through.
AVERAGE not absolutly clear (hazy), and/or slightly visible	3 - 5
GOOD nice colour and clarity	6 - 8
EXCELLENT brilliant, remarkable colour and clarity	9 - 12
Your score	12

AROMA/BOUQUET	MAX NOTE: 30	COMMENTS
BAD unpleasent or repulsive aroma	0	Typical example of semi sweet traditional mead. Nice, round and complex bouquet. Honey (light honey, spring or summer flowers) is nicely coming through. Really good ballance between sweetness and acidity on the nose. Alcohol is well incorporated and compliments the whole aroma.
POOR aroma slightly unpleasent or no noticable aroma	1 - 5
UNSATISFACTORY very weak or light unpleasent aroma	6 - 10
AVERAGE light, pleasent aroma but not interesting	11 - 15
GOOD nice, pleasent aroma with honey notes present	16 - 20
VERY GOOD characteristic, complex and well-balanced aromas	21 - 25
EXCELLENT beautiful, remarkable aromas, exceptional	26 - 30
Your score	27

FLAVOUR AND BODY	MAX NOTE: 32	COMMENTS
BAD too sweet, too accidic, strong alcohol, unpleasent flavour, no balance	0	Great, complex mead. Honey is very present and beautifully coming through. Well balanced sweetness and acidity. Notes of white fruits on the back, but they are complementing the whole. Rich, crisp and fresh. Easy to drink. Body is medium, alcohol is well masked and gives nice spiciness and bitternes to overall a very complex mead.
POOR no distinctive taste and/or with some defects	1 - 5
UNSATISFACTORY slight unpleasent flavours, some minor defects	6 - 10
AVERAGE pleasent but not interesting	11 - 15
GOOD nice balance, light but pleasent flavour, may have some imperfections	16 - 20
VERY GOOD characteristic flavours, balanced and complex	21 - 25
EXCELLENT perfect balance and complex, remarkable, exceptional	26 - 32
Your score	27
Additional comments:
